DTC is an automated depository for securities and a clearinghouse for securities transactions, and will be responsible for establishing and maintaining a book-entry system for recording the ownership interest of its participants, which include certain banks, trust companies and securities dealers, and the transfer of the interests among its participants. The DTC participants will be responsible for establishing and maintaining records with respect to the Notes. Individual purchases of beneficial ownership interest in the Notes may be made only through book entries made on the books and records of DTC (or a successor depository) and its nominee as registered owner of the Notes. Transfer of principal and interest payments to beneficial owners by participants of DTC will be the responsibility of such participants and other nominees of beneficial owners. The Town will not be responsible or liable for payments by DTC to its participants or by DTC participants to beneficial owners or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing the records maintained by DTC, its participants or persons acting through such participants.

The Notes will be valid and legally binding general obligations of the Town. Unless paid from other sources, all the taxable real property within the Town will be subject to the levy of ad valorem taxes to pay the Notes and interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount. The Town will pledge its faith and credit for the payment of the principal of the Notes and interest thereon.

Each bid may be for all or a portion of the Notes and must state a single rate of interest therefore in a multiple of one hundredth (1/100th) or one eighth (1/8th) of one per centum (1%) per annum. Interest will be calculated on the basis of 30 days to the month and 360-days to the year. Unless all bids are rejected, the award will be made to the bidder complying with the terms of sale and offering to purchase the Notes at the lowest aggregate interest cost, after factoring in any premium bid. If there is more than one bid at the same lowest net interest cost, the winner will be selected by the Town by lot. The right is reserved by the Town to reject all bids.

The right is reserved by the Town to award to any bidder(s) all or any part of the Notes which such bidder(s) offers to purchase and, in such event, the premium, if any, specified by such bidder(s) will be pro-rated. In any event, award of the Notes will be made on the basis of the bid or combination of bids offering to purchase the Notes on terms most favorable to the Town.

The Notes will be delivered in New York, New York or at such other place as may be agreed with the purchaser(s) on or about May 25, 2011. The purchase price of the Notes, in accordance with the purchaser's bid, shall be paid in Federal Funds or other funds available for immediate credit on the delivery date.

CUSIP identification numbers will be printed on the Notes if Bond Counsel is provided with such numbers by the close of business on the date of sale of the Notes, but neither the failure to print such number on any Note nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for a failure or refusal by the purchaser(s) thereof to accept delivery of and pay for the Notes in accordance with the terms of the purchase contract. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP numbers on the Notes shall be paid for by the Town; provided, however, that the CUSIP Service Bureau charge for the assignment of such numbers shall be the responsibility of and shall be paid for by the purchaser(s).

which would cause interest on the Notes to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes, including, without limitation, refraining from spending the proceeds of the Notes and investment earnings thereon on certain specified purposes, and (iv) the approving opinion of the law firm of Hodgson Russ LLP, Bond Counsel, of Buffalo, New York, to the effect that the Notes are valid and legally binding general obligations of the Town for which the Town has validly pledged its faith and credit and, unless paid from other sources, all the taxable real property within the Town is subject to the levy of ad valorem real estate taxes to pay the Notes and interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount. Reference should be made to the Official Statement for a description of the scope of Bond Counsel's engagement in relation to the issuance of the Notes and the matters covered by such legal opinion.

The Official Statement dated May 3, 2011 is in a form "deemed final" for purposes of SEC Rule 15c2-12 (the "Rule"), except for the omission therefrom of those items allowable under the Rule. In order to assist bidders in complying with the Rule and as part of the Town's contractual obligation arising from its acceptance of the successful bidder's proposal, at the time of the delivery of the Notes the Town will provide an executed copy of its "Undertaking to Provide Notice of Material Events." Such undertaking will constitute a written agreement or contract of the Town for the benefit of holders of and owners of beneficial interest in the Notes, to provide to the Electronic Municipal Market Access ("EMMA") System implemented by the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board established pursuant to Section 15B(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or any successor thereto, notice of the occurrence of certain material events, as enumerated in the Rule.

Any party executing and delivering a bid for the Notes agrees, if its bid is accepted by the Town, to provide to the Town, in writing, within two business days after the date of such award, all information which such successful bidder determines is necessary for it to comply with the Rule, including all necessary pricing and sale information, information with respect to the purchase of bond insurance, if any, and underwriter identification. Within five business days following receipt by the Town thereof the Town will furnish to the successful bidder, in reasonable quantities as requested by the successful bidder, copies of such Official Statement, updated as necessary, and supplemented to include such information. Failure by the successful bidder to provide such information will prevent the Town from furnishing such Official Statement as described above. The Town shall not be responsible or liable in any manner for the successful bidder's determination of information necessary to comply with the Rule or the accuracy of any such information provided by the successful bidder or for failure to furnish such Official Statements as described above which results from a failure by the successful bidder to provide the aforementioned information within the time specified. Acceptance by the successful bidder of such final Official Statements shall be conclusive evidence of the satisfactory completion of the obligations of the Town with respect to the preparation and delivery thereof.
